Pierre Fort and his wife run this organically farmed vineyard. Chardonnay and Pinot are their specialities. Hand picked, the style is almost Burgundian with fabulous acidity. Hints of lemon and pear on the nose with slightly wooded with light menthol notes. The palate is concentrated and fruity with a touch of oak on the finish. Great with pasta, grilled chicken and salads.

From north west Spain, this refreshing yet earthy red made from the Mencia variety has lots of redcurrant and cranberry fruit flavours with good lift on the finish and textural crunchiness. A trendy wine that is great with charcuterie.

Enjoyed at our Bin End tasting this proved to be quite popular. Lighter in colour this wine has fantastic black fruit characters, a good dose of acidity and some weight to carry it through on the finish. Terrific value at £7.00 and a great red to enjoy for the summer.

In the Saint Rita Hills you can produce some amazing Pinot Noir. This is a perfect example, slightly chewy black berry and cherry fruits, lovely big round tannins and some alcohol to carry the finish through. A Pinot not for the faint hearted.

A unique & contemplative Sherry-style wine (NB Montilla is 100km further in land than Jerez) with walnut skin and tangy honey flavours plus an off-dry sweetness. As well as the tell tale rancio note on the finish there is an almost iodine-like saltiness that balances well with dark raisin and molasses-like core. An amazing style of wine that is an absolute steal at this price.
